

What questions has the Covid experience raised for you? Which areas of our life now require some assurance?

How to stay safe from the hidden challenges of Covid? How can one support people while trying to stay safe? How can we support people with mental illness challenges?

Why has God allowed such suffering amongst the poor and marginalised during this pandemic.? What is God's plan for New Way and how can we reach out to more people in our community?

Our sustainability on earth in the context of God's command in GenesisWhere is heaven?What is the resurrected body?When does eternal life start?- has it already started?

Need to spend more time studying the bible and praying and being more thankful

Identity

What is the new norm, how long will we have to socially distance

Feelings of isolation caused by lack of face to face interaction , months went by. What are we as people or Christian community without interaction?

Hopefully life will return to a more normal life. However this period has made one reflect on the future with all the death that has gone on and everyone has been touch by the loss of family or people we know

How can we manage living through loneliness? Well God has shown us how to worship online and how to use modern technology to keep in touch even though it seems rather ethereal. Will our social lives ever be the same again? Many people are anxious.

It has made me question where God is in the suffering... and at the same time revealed my need to trust and recognise that many prayers have been answered

Is our faith relevant today in the CofE format that we hold services? We have seen people of all walks of life step up to help others during this epidemic not all have Christian belief. We need assurance that it is safe to mix with each other.

Why has God allowed this world changing pandemic to affect every corner of the globe. So many lives lost and families unable to grieve properly.

More self confidence.

Gods love is everlasting

Hope for a return to normal church life

Require assurances that we can find a path through the new world. That we won't leave a lost generation behind us.

During Covid I have very much enjoyed the online worship hosted by Mark Pavey. I am undecided if I wish to continue following this as opposed to physically attending a service.

The way we reach out and respond to express our faith through action in the wider community and world

What questions has the Covid experience raised for you? Which areas of our life now require some assurance?

Challenge of doing things against restrictions imposed.
Challenge between doing supporting others and declining other things. Getting "back to normal" whatever that is in a respectful but God led way

Challenge of secular redtrictions v what we are called to do.
